Articles of Agreement indented, made, concluded and agreed upon this 17th day of May, in the twentieth year, &c. and in the year of our Lord 1780, Between A. A. of, &c. of the one part, and B. B. of, &c. of the other part, as follows.

Recital, that one party not having ſufficient &c. hath applied to the other, which he agrees to upon terms, &c.

WHEREAS the ſaid B. B. hath for ſome time been minded and deſirous again to ſet up the trade of a Dyer in Charlton, but hath not hitherto been able to effect the ſame for want of a dye-houſe and other neceſſary accommodations there, and for that he hath not a ſufficient ſtock to carry on the ſaid trade, and therefore hath lately applied himſelf to the ſaid A. A. to aſſiſt him therein, which the ſaid A. A. is willing and ready to do upon the terms, and for the conſiderations therein after mentioned. Now therefore theſe Preſents witneſs, that it is hereby mutually and reciprocally concluded, declared and agreed by and between the ſaid parties to theſe preſents, in manner following; (that is to ſay)

The laſt party covenants that the firſt ſhall enjoy certain tenements for ſeven years, &c.

First, The ſaid A. A. doth hereby for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, covenant, promiſe, grant and agree to and with the ſaid B. A. ſhall and will uſe his endeavour from time to time to promote and advance the ſaid trade of the ſaid B. B. during the ſaid term, by ſending him cloth to be dyed, and recommending cuſtomers to him on that account, as he ſhall have opportunity; And alſo that he the ſaid A. A. ſhall and will during the term aforeſaid, pay and allow to the ſaid B. B. for the dying of all cloth which the ſaid A. A. ſhall ſend to him for that purpoſe, in caſe the ſame be done according to the ſtandard or pattern agreed upon between them, and to which both their ſeals are affixed, after the rate of eight pounds for every cloth commonly called a long Worceſter cloth, and ſo proportionably for any greater or leſs quantity: And in Caſe any ſuch cloths ſhall be dyed with the ingredients mentioned on the back ſide of theſe articles, then and in ſuch caſe he the ſaid A. B. ſhall and will forthwith ſet up his ſaid trade of a Grain-Dyer in the ſaid dye-houſe, and carry on and follow the ſame with the utmoſt care, application and diligence, for and during all the ſaid term aforementioned, and provide himſelf from time to time with all ſuch wares, materials and ingredients as are neceſſary and requiſite for carrying on the ſame: And alſo that the ſaid A. A. ſhall and may from time to time, during the term aforeſaid, have, receive and take to and for his own proper uſe and benefit the ſum of forty pounds of lawful money of England, out of, and for every hundred pounds which the ſaid B. B. ſhall earn, get or contract, for, in or by the ſaid trade or buſineſs of a Dyer, to be reckoned and computed according to the original agreement with his cuſtomers, without any abatement or deduction, for or in reſpect of any damage or loſs which he ſhall or may ſuſtain by means of his non-performance, or not due performance of ſuch agreement or otherwiſe; and ſo proportionably for any greater or leſs ſum than one hundred pounds. And for the more punctual payment thereof he the ſaid B. B. ſhall and will from time to time, during the aforeſaid term of nine years dye, or cauſe to be dyed in good and workmanlike manner, all the cloth which the ſaid A. A. ſhall ſend, or cauſe to be ſent to him for that purpoſe, according to the ſtandard or pattern aforeſaid, and after the rate aforeſaid; And if at any time or times the ſaid A. A. ſhall give order or direction to make uſe of the aforeſaid ingredients, or any of them, in dying ſuch cloths, then and ſo often the ſame ſhall be uſed accordingly, without taking or demanding on that account more than what ſuch ingredients ſo uſed firſt coſt the ſaid B. B. And further, that he the ſaid B. B. ſhall and will from time to time during the term aforeſaid, keep or cauſe to be kept true and faithful accounts of all his dealings, contracts, work and buſineſs in or about his ſaid trade, and of all debts and monies which ſhall from time to time grow due or become owing to him on the account thereof; And for the more full and clear evidencing and diſcovery thereof, ſhall and will keep, or cauſe to be kept, one or more book or books of accounts, wherein all ſuch dealings, contracts, debts, matters and things ſhall be from time to time fairly entered and wrote down; Which book or books of account ſhall be always kept in ſome convenient place belong to the ſaid dye-houſe, to which the ſaid *A. General words.

Habendum,

Proviſo for redemption.

and that the parties have agreed that a receiver be appointed, and who ſhall be the firſt receiver.

The appointment of a receiver by mortgagor and mortgagee.

Power to diſcharge, diſtrain, ſue, &c.

thereof, to take ſuch lawful remedies by action, ſuit, diſtreſs or otherwiſe, for recovery of the ſame, as ſhall be thought neceſſary or requiſite in that behalf, and to do and execute all other matters and things needful or requiſite for collecting or receiving the ſame, upon the truſts herein after mentioned; that is to ſay, upon truſt, firſt to pay intereſt to the mortgagee,

Upon Truſt, that he the ſaid D. D. ſhall and do from time to time, in the firſt place, pay and apply the rents and profits of the premiſes to be by him received as aforeſaid, for and towards payment and ſatisfaction unto the ſaid C. C. his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, of and for all intereſt from time to time to grow due and payable for or in reſpect of the ſaid principal ſum of three thouſand pounds, after the rate aforeſaid, at ſuch times, and in ſuch manner as are herein before mentioned for payment thereof, according to the purport of the aforeſaid proviſo, and the true intent and meaning of the ſaid recited indenture of releaſe and of theſe preſents;

then the overplus to the mortgagor, deducting expences.

And ſhall and do in the next place render and pay over unto the ſaid A. A. her heirs and aſſigns, the overplus (if any) of the rents and profits of the ſaid moiety, above what ſhall from time to time be paid and applied for the purpoſes aforeſaid, and other neceſſary charges and expences in collecting, receiving or remitting ſuch rents and profits.

The receiver covenants with the mortgagee to receive and pay, &c.

And the ſaid D. D. doth hereby for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, covenant, promiſe and agree, to and with the ſaid C. C. his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, That he the ſaid D. D. ſhall and will from time to time, ſo long as he ſhall be continued collector and receiver of the rents and profits of the aforeſaid moiety of the ſaid manors and premiſes, or any part thereof, in manner aforeſaid, uſe his utmoſt endeavour faithfully to collect and receive the ſame, and pay, apply and diſpoſe of the ſame when received, in ſuch manner as are herein before in that behalf mentioned or directed, according to the true intent and meaning of theſe preſents, and the truſt hereby in him repoſed.

The mortgagor covenants not to revoke this power nor obſtruct the receiver, and

And the ſaid A. A. doth hereby for herſelf, her heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, further covenant, promiſe, grant and agree, to and with the ſaid C. C. his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, in manner following; that is to ſay, That ſhe the ſaid A. A. her heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, ſhall not, nor will at any time hereafter, without the privity and conſent of the ſaid C. C. his heirs, executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, firſt had and obtained in writing, under his or their reſpective hands and ſeals, revoke, alter or fruſtrate the powers or authorities hereby given unto the ſaid D. D. or hinder or obſtruct him the ſaid D. D. or any future receiver, (to be appointed as herein after mentioned) in collecting and receiving the rents and profits of the aforeſaid moiety of the ſaid manor and premiſes, or any part thereof, or the intereſt thereof, which ſhall remain owing and unpaid.

on death, &c. or miſbehaviour of receiver,

And further, that in caſe the ſaid D. D. ſhall by death, or other diſability, be rendered incapable to collect and receive the rents and profits of the premiſes, or ſhall refuſe or neglect to act or proceed therein, and to apply the ſame in manner aforeſaid, during ſuch time as the ſaid ſum of three thouſand pounds, or any part thereof, ſhall be owing and unpaid, or ſhall otherwiſe miſbehave himſelf in relation to the truſts hereby in him repoſed, then and in any of the ſaid caſes ſhe the ſaid A. A. her heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, ſhall and will join with the ſaid C. C. his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, in removing the ſaid D. D. from his ſaid employment, and in conſtituting and appointing ſome other fit perſon or perſons, with their mutual conſent and approbation, to receive, collect and manage the rents and profits of the aforeſaid moiety of the ſaid manor and premiſes, upon the truſts aforeſaid, and ſo from time to time, and as often as any of the like caſes ſhall happen, until the ſum of three thouſand pounds and intereſt ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid.

to join in appointing another.

The mortgagee not to bear any loſs by the receiver.

And it is hereby declared and agreed by and between the ſaid A. A. and C. C. that he the ſaid C. C. his heirs, executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, ſhall not bear or ſuſtain, or be charged or chargeable with, or accountable for any loſs which ſhall happen of the rents and profits of the ſaid moiety of the aforeſaid manor and premiſes, or any part thereof, by reaſon or means of any neglect, default or breach of truſt in the ſaid D. D. or any future collector or receiver of the ſame, but that ſuch loſs ſhall be wholly borne and ſuſtained by the ſaid A. A. her heirs, executors or adminiſtrators.

Recital that the rents may not be ſufficient to pay the intereſt, therefore the mortgagor has paid a ſum to truſtees.

And whereas it is apprehended that the rents and profits of the aforeſaid moiety of the ſaid manor and premiſes will fall ſhort, and not be ſufficient to pay, ſatisfy and make up the full intereſt of the ſaid three thouſand pounds in manner aforeſaid; And therefore in order to ſupply ſuch deficiency, and for further ſecuring the punctual and regular payment of ſuch intereſt as aforeſaid, It hath been agreed by and between the ſaid A. A. and C. C. that ſhe the ſaid A. A. ſhould pay, and accordingly ſhe hath this day actually paid into the hands of the ſaid E. E. and F. C. the ſum of one thouſand pounds, of lawful money of Great Britain, upon the truſts, and to and for the intents and purpoſes herein after mentioned concerning the ſame, the receipt and payment whereof they do hereby acknowledge.

Now this Indenture further witneſſeth, and it is hereby declared and agreed by and between the ſaid parties hereto, that the ſaid ſum of one thouſand pounds, ſo paid to the ſaid E. E. and F. C. as aforeſaid, was ſo paid to them upon the truſts, and to and for the ends and purpoſes following; that is to ſay,

The truſt declared,

Upon Truſt, that that they the ſaid E. E. and F. C. and the ſurvivor of them, and the executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns of ſuch ſurvivor, ſhall and do from time to time, by and out of the yearly intereſt, profits and produce of the ſaid one thouſand pounds, as the ſame ſhall from time to time ariſe and come to their reſpective hands, pay, ſatisfy and make up unto the ſaid C. C. his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, the full intereſt of the ſaid three thouſand pounds, after the rate aforeſaid, at ſuch time, and in ſuch manner as are herein before mentioned, for payment thereof, in ſupply of the deficiency of the rents and profits of the ſaid moiety of the ſaid manor and premiſes to be applied for that purpoſe as aforeſaid, when and ſo often as any ſuch deficiency ſhall happen, and ſhall and do render and pay over unto the ſaid A. A. her executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, the overplus (if any) of the yearly intereſt, profits and produce of the ſaid one thouſand pounds, above what ſhall from time to time be paid and applied for making up ſuch deficiency as aforeſaid. But in caſe ſuch yearly intereſt and produce ſhall fall ſhort, and not be ſufficient to make up ſuch deficiency, first to make good the intereſt upon the mortgage,

(the overplus to the mortgagor,) if need be to apply part of the principal,

Then upon this further Truſt, that they the ſaid E. E. and F. C. and the ſurvivors of them, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, do and ſhall from time to time make good and pay the ſame, by and out of the ſaid principal ſum of one thouſand pounds, or by ſale or mortgage of the ſecurity or ſecurities, ſtock or annuities, whereof or wherein the ſame ſhall from time to time conſiſt or be inveſted, or otherwiſe, as the ſame truſtees in their diſcretion ſhall think fit.

and after payment of the mortgage intereſt and charges,

Provided always nevertheleſs, and it is hereby declared and agreed by and between the ſaid parties to theſe preſents, that from and after payment of the ſaid three thouſand pounds, and all intereſt to grow due for the ſame unto the ſaid C. C. his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, together with the charges and expences attending the execution of the laſt mentioned truſts, and immediately thereupon, or ſo ſoon after as conveniently may be, they the ſaid E. E. and F. C. or the ſurvivor of them, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, ſhall and will, at the requeſt, coſt and charges of the ſaid A. A. her executors, executors or adminiſtrators, pay back, aſſign and make over the ſaid ſum of one thouſand pounds, and all ſecurity or ſecurities, ſtock or annuities, whereof or wherein the ſame ſhall then conſiſt, or be inveſted, or ſo much thereof as ſhall then remain undiſpoſed of for the purpoſes aforeſaid, and all intereſt and produce then due for or upon the ſame, or any part thereof, unto the ſaid A. A. her executors and adminiſtrators, to and for her and their own uſe and benefit, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. And it is hereby declared and agreed by and between the ſaid parties to theſe preſents, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid E. E. and C. F. and the ſurvivor of them, his executors and adminiſtrators, from time to time, to lend and place out the ſaid ſum of one thouſand pounds, ſo paid to them as aforeſaid, or any part thereof, with the conſent and approbation of the ſaid A. A. and C. C. or their reſpective executors or adminiſtrators, upon any public or private ſecurity or ſecurities, at intereſt, or lay out and inveſt the ſame, or any part thereof, in the purchaſe of ſtock or annuities in any of the public funds or companies, and from time to time to call in ſuch monies ſo lent and placed out on ſecurities as aforeſaid, or ſell and diſpoſe of ſuch ſtock or annuities, ſo to be purchaſed as aforeſaid, or any part thereof, and again to lend, place out, or inveſt the ſame, or any part thereof, in manner aforeſaid, as often as they ſhall think fit, with ſuch approbation as aforeſaid, upon the truſts, and ſubject to the proviſo herein before mentioned and contained, of and concerning the ſame. And it is hereby further declared and agreed by and between the ſaid parties to theſe preſents, that the ſaid E. E. and F. C. their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, or any of them, ſhall not be charged or chargeable with, or accountable for any more monies than they reſpectively ſhall actually receive, or ſhall come to their reſpective hands by virtue of the truſts hereby in them repoſed as aforeſaid, nor with or for any loſs which ſhall happen of the ſame truſt-monies, or any part thereof, ſo as the ſame happen without their wilful default, nor the one of them for the other of them, or for the acts, deeds, receipts, diſburſements, the one of the other, but each of them only for his own acts, deeds, receipts and diſburſements. And alſo, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid E. E. and F. C. their executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, and every of them, in the firſt place, by and out of their ſaid truſt-premiſes to deduct and reimburſe him and themſelves all ſuch loſs, coſts, charges, damages and expences, as they or any of them ſhall be put unto or ſuſtain, for or by reaſon of the truſts hereby in them repoſed, or the management or execution thereof, or any other thing in any wiſe relating thereunto. In Witneſs, &c.

this ſum, &c. to the mortgagor.

The truſtees may place out the money with conſent of parties, and call it in, and again place it out, and not be charged for more than they receive, nor with loſs without wilful default, nor one for the other; may deduct expences.

If therefore the ſaid *C. The ſixteen firſt Copyhold Precedents were communicated to the Editors of this work by Mr. Tetlow, of Knottingley, in the county of York, Attorney at Law, and Public Notary, accompanied with the following Note and Caſes, with the Opinions of Counſel relative to Copyholds:

Eſtates held by copy of court roll (the rolls of the court, the copies of the roll, and immemorial occupation being their chief evidence of exiſtence) entirely depend upon immemorial cuſtom and antiquity, for nothing can be a cuſtom, unleſs it be tempore quo non extat memoria, or time out of mind; and cuſtoms are as various as the multiplicity of manors. The word, manor, or manour, is a noun collective, and comprehends houſes, lands, gardens, trees, royalties, &c. and it may be derived from manerium quaſi manurium, becauſe it is laboured and cultivated under the ſuperintendance and induſtry of the Lord himſelf; or, perhaps, from the Latin word maneo, to remain, or from the French word manoir, manſions, the Lord often reſiding there himſelf. But it cannot be a manor without a court baron belonging to it. All Lords and Ladies of Manors are qualified to kill game by themſelves, and game-keepers properly authorized. By cuſtom, copyhold tenants may purchaſe by ſurrender, and hold to them and their heirs lands and tenements in fee-ſimple or fee-tail, or for term of life, or upon mortgage, or upon any other condition, at the will of the Lord, after the cuſtom of the ſame manour; and ſhould it happen, through inadvertency or illiteracy, that a will, declaring the uſes of a ſurrender, be only atteſted by two witneſſes, contrary to the ſtatute, which requires three witneſſes for freehold eſtates, yet it would be efficacious and good; becauſe copyhold eſtates paſs by the ſurrender, and not by the will. It is neceſſary before any ſums of money are lent or advanced by mortgagees upon copyhold eſtates, that the court rolls be carefully ſearched, in order to know if ſuch eſtates are clear of incumbrances, and that the ſurrenders

F. A. and his heirs and aſſigns for ever; and if it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid F. A. his heirs and aſſigns, and every of them from time to time, and at all times from henceforth for ever hereafter to his and their own uſes, peaceably and quietly to have, hold, occupy, poſſeſs and enjoy the ſaid parcels of land and premiſes with the appurtenances, according to the true meaning of the ſaid recited ſurrender and theſe preſents, Freed and diſcharged of and from all former and other bargains, ſales, gifts, grants, eſtates, uſes, wills, intails, leaſe and leaſes, mortgages, jointures, dowers, right and title of dower, annuities, rents, arrearages of rents, iſſues, fines, amerciaments, ſurrenders, ſeizures, forfeitures and cauſes of forfeiture and ſeizures, acts, charges, titles, troubles and incumbrances whatſoever heretofore had, made, done, committed, ſuffered, occaſioned or executed, or hereafter to be done by the ſaid C. A. his heirs or aſſigns, or any of them, or of or by any other perſon or perſons (the rents and ſervices to be from henceforth due and payable for the ſaid premiſes, to the Lords of the ſaid manor, their heirs and aſſigns, and the fine to be made with the ſaid Lords for the admittance upon the ſaid ſurrender only excepted;) And moreover, that if he the ſaid C. A. and his heirs, and the ſaid R. his wife, and every of them ſhall and will from time to time, and at all times hereafter, at the reaſonable requeſt, and at the only proper coſts and charges of the ſaid F. A. his heirs or aſſigns, or any of them, make, do, ſuffer and execute, or cauſe and ſuffer to be made, done and executed, all ſuch further and reaſonable act and acts, thing and things, devices and aſſurances by ſurrender, ſeizure, or otherwiſe, as ſhall be reaſonably drawn, deviſed, adviſed, or required by the ſaid F. A. his heirs or aſſigns, or his or their counſel learned in the law, for the better and more perfect conveying, ſurrendering and aſſuring of the ſaid parcels of land and premiſes with the appurtenances unto the ſaid F. A. his heirs and aſſigns for ever; Then the above written obligation to be void and of no effect, Or elſe to be and remain in full force and virtue.

renders be courted in due time, according to cuſtom, and admittances had thereupon. In transferring or ſurrendering copyhold eſtates into the hands of the Lord of the manor, by the ſteward or copyholders (married women, or feme coverts, always being examined, at the time of taking the ſurrenders, apart from their huſbands, by the ſteward) virga, a rod, or twig, and ſometimes a ſtraw, according to the cuſtom, are uſed. And, in weighty affairs, upon mortgages, generally, beſides the ſurrender, a deed of covenants is executed between the parties. Copyhold tenures are the relics of the ancient tenure in villenage, aboliſhed, with other ſervile tenures,* by 12th of King Charles II. cap. xxiv; and, to a diſcerning eye, originate from the ancient manner of the Romans (who lived and incorporated with the Britons for ſeveral hundred years) manumitting, and making free their ſlaves; upon whoſe manumiſſion before the Conſul, or Prætor, the maſter laying his hand upon the ſervant's head, uſed theſe words, Hunc liberum eſſe volo, I will this man be free; and then turning his ſervant round, and giving him a box on the ear, he did emittere ſervume manu, Let his ſervant go out of his hands; the Conſul, or Prætor, then laying a certain wand, or rod, called Vindicta, upon the ſervant's head, replied, Dico eum liberum eſſe more quiritum, I order that he be free after the manner of the Romans; and upon the Lictor, or Serjeant, taking the wand, and ſtriking the ſervant upon the head, and with his hand over his face, and puſhing him on the back, he was regiſtered for a freeman; and having his head ſhaved at the ſame time, he received a cap, as a token of liberty, (hence, perhaps, the cap of maintenance in heraldry) a white garment, a gold ring, and an additional, or new name, added unto his former.—Nay, even a ſimile, or metaphor, borrowed from the faſces, or axes, tied up in a bundle with rods and ſtaves, and carried before the Roman magiſtrates, as an enſign of authority, would not be abſurd, ſtrained, or too far fetched.

☞ It is cuſtomary in ſome manors for leſſees of copyhold eſtates for two or three years, or for a longer time, (where the Lord's licence is obtained) though they have no territorial intereſt or title thereto, to take ſurrenders from copyholders in the paſſing and transferring thereof.

CASES, with OPINIONS relating COPYHOLDS.

CASE—where there are only three copyholders of a manor, and two other tenants of the Lord, how the Lord muſt admit, and recover his fines.

A. B. is Lord of a copyhold manor, wherein are only three copyholders, and two other tenants, who hold by leaſe of the Lord; ſaving that the tenements of the copyholders are let to tenants. Two of the copyholders have lately by ſurrender by the hands of the Steward ſold their tenements to ſeveral purchaſers; the other copyholder, being in prieſt's orders, claims to be exempted from ſerving on the jury at the court of the ſaid manor.

Q. If the Lord, in this caſe, can keep a court for preſenting the ſaid ſurrenders, and admitting the purchaſers, and before whom, or what means muſt the Lord purſue to admit them, and be entitled to, and recover his fines due thereon?

A. The cuſtom of the manor ſhould be purſued in caſes of copyholds, but, by the general law of copyholds, the Lord may admit out of court upon a ſurrender; and it ſeems to be the better opinion, that a Steward may admit out of court, as well as in; for an admittance is not a judicial act: however, to clear the doubt, the Steward may hold a court, and there admit, and he being Judge of the court, may hold it without a jury of copyholders, or others.

The testatrix made a surrender to the use of her said will, according to the custom of the manor, which was presented and filed.

N. B. C. G. the brother of the testatrix, and A. G. his daughter, are both dead, A. dying a minor, and unmarried. H. G. the other sister, married one R. G. the tenant for life, to one J. W. Esquire.

It was always reputed, that the custom of the manor, in which the above estate lies, was, for intailed estates to be barred by common surrender, without suffering a recovery; but there are so few copyholders in the manor, that we cannot find an instance in the court rolls of an intail being made, except one, of which there is no discontinuance yet made. Therefore, such custom cannot be proved otherwise than by common report.

Q. As no instance can be shewn how estates tail were barred, (otherwise than by common report) is it most advisable for said R. L. and wife, to suffer a recovery in order to extinguish her estate tail, and remainder over, (expectant on the death of her said aunt A. G. tenant for life) so as as to make a sure and perfect title to Mr. W. the purchaser? If not, how otherwise?

A Surrender

A. To prove that copyholds may be intailed, it is not ſufficient to ſhew that they have been frequently limited to one, or more, and the heirs of his or their bodies; but it ought to be made appear that remainders (as in this caſe) had been often limited over, and, on failure of iſſue of the firſt, been actually enjoyed accordingly, which, I ſuppoſe, can ſcarce be done in ſo ſmall a manor; and if not, the limitations over to T. B. &c. will be taken as void, and, on failure of iſſue of H. G. (now L.) will revert to the heirs of the teſtatrix, if no act done to prevent it, as after-mentioned. But, ſuppoſing the intail in H. L. good, and remainder over, well limited, I think ſuch tail and remainders might by cuſtom (if proved) be barred by ſurrender only, if H. L. had been tenant in tail in poſſeſſion, (which ſhe is not;) though I much doubt it when it appears ſhe is only tenant in tail in remainder, expectant upon an eſtate for life in being. And as to ſuffering a recovery, as propoſed, though ſuch recovery had been common in the manor, yet without A. G. (tenant for life) coming to make a tenant, againſt whom the plaint muſt be brought, I think it would not do. As where there is tenant for life of freehold lands, remainder in tail, &c. &c. the remainder in tail cannot ſuffer a recovery to bar the intails and remainders, without the tenant for life joining to make a tenant to the præcipe.

But, ſuppoſing the cuſtom of the manor did not admit of intails, but that the eſtate of *H. It appears by the pariſh regiſter, that G. R. the original purchaſer, was buried the 17th of December, 1688.

Now you'll pleaſe to obſerve, that the ſurrender on which the ſaid entail is grounded is made in the year 1689. So that certainly there muſt be a miſtake in the regiſter, or the perſon who once ſaw this ſame ſurrender muſt be very much miſtaken in the year of our Lord.—A perſon of credit and veracity ſome time ago in ſearching the court rolls, ſaw the entail above; but now, upon a ſecond ſearch, no ſuch thing is to be found. J. R. (tenant for life or in tail) was buried April 17th, 1723. The claimant's father was born May 17th, 1708: So that claimant's father at the time of the death of J. R. (tenant for life or in tail) was about fourteen years and eleven months old.

From April 17th, 1723, (when claimant's grandfather, tenant for life or in tail died) to the time claimant's father came of age, which was May 17th, 1729, ſix years and one month, which makes in all twenty-one years.

From 17th May 1729, to 17th May 1749, would (according to my calculation) have been twenty years, if claimant's father had lived to have claimed. But he died May 21ſt, 1731, which from May 17th, 1729, is two years and four days after he came of age. His ſon J. the preſent claimant, was born February 15, 1730. From that time to Febru-bruary 26th, 1759, twenty-nine years. February 15th, 1751, claimant came to age. February 26th, 1759, eight years, and from thence hitherto, 15th March, 1759, eight years and ſeventeen days ſince claimant came to age.

Q. Therefore is the claimant, or not, barred by the ſtatute of limitations; or has he any right or title to the ſaid cloſe of land above mentioned?

A. I

19th May, 1767, first proclamation.

[Two other proclamations.]

We the jury impannelled and sworn at the Great Court Baron, holden the 28th day of April, 1767, do find this indenture of lease made for the term of twenty-one years, without leave of the Lord, without licence of this court, and contrary to the custom of the manor. We do therefore find the premises therein contained forfeited to the Lord of the said manor. As Witness our hands,

Manor of Haitefield. } Be it commanded the Bailiff of the said manor, that he seize the lands and premises in the within written indenture of lease contained, into the hands of the Lord of the said manor, and that he make a return of this precept at the next court, to be holden in and for the said manor.

Richard Shepard, Deputy-Steward.

By virtue of the precept above, I have seized into the hands of the Lord, the lands and premises which are mentioned in this indenture of lease, with the appurtenances. As Witness my hand, the 14th day of May, 1767.

William Good, Bailiff.

A Regrant of Copyhold Estate after Seizure.

Manor of Snaith and Cowick. } At the Court Baron of G. H. Gentleman, holden there for the manor and soak aforesaid, the 25th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1765, It is thus enrolled:

To this Court came O. M. and E. his wife, and in full court, did take of the Lord of this manor, One messuage or tenement, with all the barns, buildings, garths, gardens and appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate, lying and being in Snaith, betwixt the lands of J. D. Esquire, west, and H. M. east, one cottage situate in Cowick, with the appurtenances, in the tenure or occupation of W. S. one acre, &c. (describing all the premises particularly,) All which said premises were lately seized into the hands of the Lord, for that he the said O. and J. by their indenture bearing date the 3d day of August last past, did grant and demise the said messuage, cottage, and all other the premises, with the appurtenances, unto T. M. his executors, administrators and assigns, from the day of the date of the said indenture, for and during the term of twenty-one years, without licence from the Lord, or fine, making contrary to the custom of the manor, in contempt of the Lord, and to his disinheritance, as at a court baron holden for the manor aforesaid, the 11th day of August last past, was, by a jury of the homagers then sworn to enquire for the Lord, presented; whereof proclamation hath been made publicly and solemnly at three several courts of the said manor, (if any would claim to hold of the Lord of the manor One messuage, one cottage, nine acres and an half of meadow, and two acres and an half, and half a rood of land, with their appurtenances, late the lands and tenements of O. M. and J. his wife, that they should come in and be received) but none made proffer but the said O. and J. To whom the Lord by his Steward hath thereof granted seizin, To have and to hold all the aforesaid premises, with their appurtenances, to the said O. and J. for and during their natural lives, and the life of the longer liver of them, and after their decease To the Use of W. M. son and heir apparent of the said O. and J. his heirs and assigns for ever, by copy of court roll, according to the custom of the manor, by the ancient rents and services thereof heretofore due and accustomed; and they have made fine unto the Lord for entrance thereunto, as appeareth in the margin, and have done their fealty, and are thereunto admitted tenants. Fine 9s. 4d.

A. I am of opinion the statute of limitations will take place, for, from the 17th May 1729, to the 21st May 1731, the claimant's father was of full age, and might have entered, and therefore the twenty years are to be computed from the 17th May, 1729.

Q. As the surrender, on which the said entail is grounded, is not to be found, and there is that wide difference betwixt the date of the register, and the year in which the settlement is supposed to be made (being a year after the death of G. R. the first purchaser) will the testimony of the person who saw such surrender be sufficient proof to file a bill against the person now in possession of the said close, for the recovery thereof?

A. Whether the statute of limitations was to take place, or not, under the circumstances of this case, it would be impossible for the claimant to support his title under this evidence, especially as the supposed surrender bears date after the death of the surrenderor. But, if you have any good reason to believe that there really was such surrender, and that the person who is supposed to have seen it, really did see it, though he may be mistaken as to the date, and that the surrender has been secreted by, or in the hands of the present owner, you may, if you please, file a bill for a discovery.

Q. If the land is recovered, will not the mesne profits from the death of the tenant for life be also recovered?

A. If the land could be recovered, most certainly the mesne profits are recoverable, but not from the death of the tenant for life, the present claimant being only entitled from his father's death.

CASE,

A Declaration at Common Law, for Lord of a Manor's Fine on admitting a Tenant to a Copyhold Eſtate.

LANCASHIRE, to wit, } J. C. late of Birch-Hall-Fold, in the county of Lancaſter, was ſummoned to anſwer unto W. B. by R. J. T. his attorney, ſays, that Whereas he the ſaid W. B. on the 22d day of May, in the year of our Lord 1727, and for divers years next before that day, and continually from thence afterwards hitherto, was, and yet is ſeiſed of the manor of Birch-Hall, near the townſhip of Withington, and in the pariſh of Mancheſter, with the appurtenances, in the ſaid county of Lancaſter, in his demeſne as of fee; within which ſaid manor there now is, and from time immemorial hath been, and was an ancient and laudable cuſtom there uſed and approved of, to wit, that a reaſonable ſum of money upon every admiſſion of any perſon tenant to any cuſtomary tenement, or to any cuſtomary lands, parcel of the ſaid manor, according to the cuſtom of the ſaid manor, ought to be paid, and was paid, and for all the time aforeſaid was due and payable to the Lord of the manor aforeſaid, being the Lord of that manor at the time of ſuch admiſſion made, for a fine for ſuch admiſſion; and that the Lord of the manor aforeſaid, for the time being, for all the time aforeſaid, hath been uſed and accuſtomed by himſelf, for the time being, for all the time aforeſaid, upon or after ſuch admiſſion, to aſſeſs and appoint the ſaid reaſonable ſum of money for a fine, to be paid by ſuch perſon ſo admitted, for ſuch his admiſſion; and that one meſſuage or tenement, called the Forty-Acres farm, with certain lands, meadows and paſtures to the ſame belonging and adjoining, in Birch, in the county aforeſaid, containing by eſtimation forty acres, be the ſame more or leſs, now are, and from time immemorial have been, parcel of the ſaid manor, and a cuſtomary tenement of that manor, and demiſed and demiſable by copy of the rolls of the court of the ſame manor, by the Lord of that manor, or by his Steward of the court of the ſame manor for the time being, to any perſon or perſons whatſoever willing to take the ſame in fee-ſimple, or otherwiſe, at the will of the Lord, according to the cuſtom of the ſaid manor, and that he the ſaid W. C. to the ſaid copyhold tenement aforeſaid, with the appurtenances, To hold to the ſaid J. C. his heirs and aſſigns for ever, at the will of the Lord, according to the cuſtom of the ſaid manor; and the ſaid W. B. further ſays, that the copyhold tenement aforeſaid, with the appurtenances, at the time of the admiſſion aforeſaid, was worth the ſum of thirty pounds by the year; and that the ſaid W. B. after the aforeſaid admiſſion of the ſaid J. C. on the —— day of ——, in the year of our Lord 1731, at Birch-Hall aforeſaid, according to the uſe and cuſtom of the ſaid manor, aſſeſſed and appointed fifty-two pounds and ten ſhillings for a fine to be paid to the ſaid W. B. by the ſaid J. C. for that admiſſion, which ſaid fifty-two pounds and ten ſhillings, ſo as aforeſaid aſſeſſed, was a reaſonable ſum of money to be paid for a fine to the Lord of the manor aforeſaid, upon the admiſſion aforeſaid, whereof the ſaid J. C. then and there had notice; and the ſaid J. C. afterwards, to wit, the ſame day and year laſt aboveſaid, was there requeſted to pay the ſaid ſum of money to the ſaid W. B. and the ſaid J. C. to pay the ſame to the ſaid W. B. hath hitherto neglected, whereof an action hath accrued to the ſaid W. B. to demand and have of the ſaid J. C. the ſaid ſum of fifty-two pounds and ten ſhillings; Nevertheleſs the ſaid J. C. (although often requeſted) hath not yet paid to the ſaid W. B. the ſaid fifty-two pounds and ten ſhillings, or any part thereof, but to pay the ſame to him hath hitherto wholly refuſed, and ſtill refuſes to the ſaid W. B. his damage of two hundred pounds; and therefore he brings his ſuit, and ſo forth.

8th June 1750. W. L. the ſon, in conſideration of fifty pounds, paid to him by T. C. ſurrenders the ſaid eſtate to the uſe of the ſaid C. T. and his heirs for ever, according to the cuſtom, defeaſable on payment of the ſaid fifty pounds, and intereſt, at a day for that purpoſe mentioned. Which ſurrender was not put into court till September laſt, but lay in the hands of the cuſtomary tenant, (who took it) till then, and no admittance is yet granted to C. T. thereupon.

N. B. W. L. the ſon, was not admitted to the eſtate when he ſurrendered to C. T.

14th May 1751, W. L. the ſon, in conſideration of eighty pounds paid by E. A. ſurrendered the ſame eſtate to the uſe of the ſaid A. and his heirs for ever, according to the cuſtom defeaſable on payment of the ſaid eighty pounds, with intereſt, at a day for that purpoſe mentioned, which laſt ſurrender was not put into court till September laſt, but lay in the ſame cuſtomary tenant's hands (who took it) till then, and no admittance is yet granted to A. thereupon.

22d Auguſt 1751. The ſaid W. L. the ſon, being involved in conſiderable debts, and ſued and arreſted by ſome of his creditors, and the ſaid W. L. his father in law, becoming bail for him, he, in conſideration of one hundred and eighty pounds, ſurrendered the ſaid eſtate abſolutely to the uſe of the ſaid W. L. his heirs and aſſigns for ever, according to the cuſtom, who called a ſpecial court the ſame day, and was then admitted to the ſaid eſtate.

N. B. It is ſuppoſed the conſideration money mentioned in L's ſurrender was not paid, nor any part of it. It is alſo conſiderable more than the eſtate is worth.

A. knew of C. T.'s ſurrender when he took his; and W. L. when he took his, knew of them both.

Q. Whether W. L. the father, was ſeized of this eſtate in his own right, and had good right to ſurrender to the uſe of his ſon in the manner he did.

A. It does not appear that L. the father, after the death of his wife, had any title to the copyhold tenements. If by the cuſtom of the manor he, after his wife's death, having had iſſue by her, became tenant by the courteſy of thoſe tenements, then he had a right to the ſame for the term of his life; and, unleſs the cuſtom of the manor requires his admittance thereto to perfect this title as tenant by the courteſy, might lawfully ſurrender to his ſon as he has done.

Q. 2d.

(uſually the Bailiff of the manor)* my true and lawful attorney, for me, and in my name to appear at the next court to be holden in and for the ſaid manor of B. on, &c. And then and there, for me and in my name as aforeſaid, to ſurrender and yield up into the hands of the Lord of the manor aforeſaid, One Meſſuage or tenement, &c. with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the ſaid meſſuage or tenement belonging, and every part and parcel thereof, within the ſaid manor. All which ſaid premiſes, I the ſaid R. B. as of R. my ſon, and of either of us, of, in and to the ſame; ratifying, confirming, and by theſe preſents allowing all and whatſoever my ſaid attorney ſhall do or cauſe to be done in the premiſes, by virtue of theſe preſents. K.* (except the fee of five pounds to the ſaid W. K. granted by the ſaid indenture for the execution of the ſaid office.) In Witneſs, &c.

Q. 2d. Whether the ſurrender from L. the ſon, to the uſe of C. T. is good, by reaſon of L.'s not being admitted to the eſtate when he ſurrendered?

N. B. He was next heir at law to his mother, in caſe his father was only tenant by the courteſy.

A. If L. the ſon, had title as heir to his mother, and was in poſſeſſion, or receipt of the rents of copyhold tenements when he ſurrendered to C. T. then his ſurrender to T. might be a good ſurrender, though L. the ſon had not been admitted tenant; and as the ſurrender made by the father, in caſe he had a title as tenant by the courteſy, would operate as a releaſe or ſurrender of his life eſtate, I incline to think that in ſuch caſe the ſon's ſurrender before admittance would be good.

Q. 3d. Whether the ſurrender to the uſe of W. L. and his admittance thereupon, is good againſt both C. T. and A. notwithſtanding the priority of theirs, and of their being put into court before the third court day, till which time the keeping them out is warranted by the cuſtom of the manor?

A. If by the cuſtom of the manor the preſentment of a ſurrender at or before the third court, after the making the ſurrender, be as valid to all intents and purpoſes as if preſented at the firſt court next after the ſurrrender, then the ſurrenders to T. A. will take place of W. L.'s in regard of their priority to the ſurrender of W. L. for the Lord by his admittance cannot give a precedency of a later ſurrender to an earlier, where this is preſented according to the cuſtom of the manor; and if the caſe was otherwiſe, W. L. knowing of the former ſurrender, for valuable conſideration, would be ſubjected thereto in equity.

A. If T. procured an admittance on the ſurrender to him, as the Lord ought to admit him if the ſurrender was courted in due time, I think he may maintain an ejectment againſt *W. Where there were two mortgages upon an eſtate ſuppoſed to be freehold, but which upon enquiry turned out to be copyhold.

A. B. by his will deviſed three meſſuages to his wife during life, and after her deceaſe to his ſon E. F. and to his heirs and aſſigns for ever. After the death of A. B. and during the life of the mother, E. F. mortgages theſe houſes for fifty pounds, and for non-payment thereof the mortgagee to enter after the death of the mother, which was regiſtered. Sometime after, E. F. and his mother make a mortgage of the ſame premiſes to J. R. for forty pounds, and on non-payment the ſaid J. R. was to enter. J. R. did enter by conſent, and has been in poſſeſſion and received the rents of two of the meſſuages for ſome years, and the mother is dead, and the ſaid E. F. has not been heard of for many years; ſo that it is ſuppoſed he is dead, his four are ſiſters now living, and all married. The firſt mortgagee now claims the premiſes by virtue of his mortgage. On ſtrict enquiry being made concerning the premiſes, J. R. finds the ſame to be copyhold, by reaſon whereof both mortgages are invalid.

Q. If J. R. for a ſmall conſideration can perſuade the ſiſters to enter into any articles to convey the ſaid premiſes to him, and get the Lord of the manor to admit them tenants to the premiſes, and then the ſiſters ſurrender the ſame to J. R. will not that be the only method J. R. can take to have the ſaid premiſes ſecured to him? And if the Lord refuſe to admit the ſiſters, what will be the beſt method to take to oblige ſuch Lord to admit them? Or what is the beſt method J. R. can take to keep poſſeſſion of the premiſes, or to recover his money?

A. Suppoſing the tenements to be copyhold, and that E. F. is dead, I think the beſt method will be to get a ſurrender from the ſiſters and heirs of E. F. But it may be difficult to compel the Lord to admit: For if the mortgage appears, it is a forfeiture of the copyhold, of which the Lord may take advantage.

Said N. T. afterwards died unmarried, and without iſſue, and neither of the deviſees was his cuſtomary heir.

17th October, 1765. At a court held for the ſaid manor the ſaid E. F. was admitted tenant to the ſaid copyhold premiſes, to hold to her according to the ſaid ſurrender and will, and the cuſtom of the ſaid manor.

January 1770, E. F. died unmarried, and without iſſue, and previous to her death the ſaid F. F. her ſiſter, intermarried with G. L.

2d September, 1773, At a court held for the ſaid manor the ſaid G. L. and F. his wife, were admitted tenants in right of the ſaid F. to the ſaid copyhold premiſes, to hold to them according to the tenor of the ſaid ſurrender and will, and the cuſtom of the ſaid manor.

Q. Can the ſaid G. L. and F. his wife, by ſuffering a recovery in the court of the ſaid manor, or how otherwiſe make a good title to the ſaid copyhold premiſes?

A. In the caſe of Backhouſe verſus Wells, determined Hilary 12 Ann, J. B. deviſed to J. B. for life only, without impeachment of waſte, and after to his iſſue, and the heirs males of the body of ſuch iſſue; and if he die without iſſue, &c. It was reſolved, that J. B. took an eſtate for life. In Lord Raymond, 1740, it is ſaid, that if the deviſe had been to the heirs males inſtead of iſſue, that this would have been an eſtate-tail in J. B. therefore, and as in this caſe there are no ſuperadded words of limitation, I am of opinion, that F. F. took an eſtate-tail, and conſequently a fee-ſimple is acquired by the recovery; but conſidering how much doubt hath been introduced into this queſtion by the opinion of the court of King's-Bench, in the caſe of Perrin and Blake, which doubts ſtill remain unremoved, I cannot by any means adviſe a purchaſer to take this title.

Mr. PHILLIPS's Opinion.

I am of opinion, that the deviſe to F. F. now the wife of G. L. gave her an eſtate-tail; for though an eſtate be given to her for life only, the ſubſequent deviſe to the heirs of her body operate as words of limitation, and give her an eſtate-tail; and there being no intervening eſtate to prevent both uniting in her, the eſtate for life is merged in the greater eſtate, where, by the cuſtom of the manor, a plaint in nature of a real action lies in the Lord's court, a recovery may be ſuffered to bar the eſtate-tail, and the remainder over; but if common recoveries have not been uſually ſuffered within the manor, I think a ſurrender from G. L. and F. his wife, will have the ſame effect.

THO. PHILLIPS.
April 17th, 1776.

Mr. FEARNE's Opinion.

It ſeems agreed beyond diſpute, that the conſtruction upon limitations of uſes upon ſurrenders of copyholds is to be the ſame as upon limitations of eſtates at common law; this admitted, there could, I conceive, have been no ſort of doubt in the preſent caſe, but in reſpect of the word "only." But here the caſe of Backhouſe v. Wells [1 Eq. abrid. 184.] where coupled with Lord Macclesfield's obſervations upon it, ſeems to be an authority againſt our doubts, for there

Deed of Bargain and Sale by a Lord of a Manor to three of his Tenants of certain Copyholds, whereby he enfranchiſes them. Proviſo not to extend to any other Copyholds than thoſe ſpecified.

THIS Indenture made the 10th day of February, in the twentieth year, &c. and in the year of our Lord 1780, Between A. A. of B. in the county of C. Eſquire, of the one part, and D. D. of E. in the county of F. Eſquire, G. G. of H. in the county of K. Eſquire, and L. L. of the pariſh of M. in the county of N. Eſquire, of the other part. Whereas the ſaid A. A. is lawfully ſeiſed to him and his heirs in fee-ſimple of the manor of O. in the county of P. and the ſaid D. D. G. G. and L. L. are, and ſtand ſeiſed to them and their heirs according to the cuſtom of the ſaid manor, Of and in (inter alia) the ſeveral parcels of land, ground and hereditaments herein after granted, bargained and ſold, or mentioned ſo to be (being copyhold lands, lying and being within and parcel of the ſaid manor) as by the court-rolls of the ſaid manor it does appear. And whereas the ſaid A. A. for the conſideration herein after expreſſed, hath agreed with the ſaid D. D. G. G. and L. L. that the ſaid ſeveral herein after granted, bargained and ſold parcels of lands, ground and hereditaments, ſhall be enfranchiſed, and from henceforth for ever hereafter ſtand and be freed, and diſcharged of and from all and all manner of fines, heriots, rents, ſuits, ſervices and cuſtoms whatſoever, and be and continue as freehold lands. Now this Indenture witneſſeth, That in purſuance and performance of the aforeſaid agreement, and for the purpoſe and to the intent aforeſaid, and alſo for and in conſideration of the ſum of three hundred pounds of lawful money of Great Britain to him the ſaid A. L. their heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, and every of them for ever by theſe preſents,) He the ſaid A. A. hath granted, bargained, ſold and confirmed, And by theſe preſents Doth grant, bargain, ſell and confirm unto the ſaid D. D. G. G. and L. L. their heirs and aſſigns, All thoſe ſeveral parcels of land and ground lying and being in the ſaid pariſh of O. and herein after particularly deſcribed, butted and bounded, containing together in the whole by eſtimation thirty acres, be the ſame more or leſs; that is to ſay, All thoſe two ſeveral parcels of land or ground lying and being in an incloſure commonly called Quenn-Field, each of which ſaid parcels of land or ground doth contain about one acre more or leſs; And one of the ſaid parcels of land or ground doth abutt upon an incloſure now or late, or ſometime of R. R. lying in Q. aforeſaid. [Here follow more parcels.] Of howſoever otherwiſe the ſaid lands, grounds, hereditaments and premiſes, or any of them, are, or have been called, known or diſtinguiſhed, or are abutted or bounded; And alſo all plantations and trees of what kind or nature ſoever, hedges, ditches, ways, paſſages, waters, water-courſes, commons, profits, commodities, emoluments, liberties, privileges, advantages and hereditaments whatſoever, to the ſaid lands, ground, hereditaments and premiſes, or any of them belonging, or in any wiſe appertaining, or with them or any of them uſed, occupied, poſſeſſed or enjoyed, and the reverſion and reverſions, remainder and remainders, rents, iſſues and profits of all and ſingular the ſaid hereby granted lands, grounds, hereditaments and premiſes, and of every of them, and of every part thereof, And all the eſtate, right, title, intereſt, uſe, truſt, poſſeſſion, freehold inheritance, claim and demand whatſoever, both in law and equity, of him the ſaid *A. there the limitation was to one for life only, and after his deceaſe to the iſſue male of his body, and to the heirs male of the body of ſuch iſſue. Here we ſee was a diſtinct and ſeparate limitation (after the deceaſe of the anceſtor) to the iſſue male of his body (which are often words of purchaſe when the words heirs of the body are not) and to the heirs male of the bodies of ſuch iſſue, ſtrong and expreſs words of limitation, grafted on the words iſſue of the body. And yet notwithſtanding all this, Lord Chief Juſtice Parker (afterwards Lord Macclesfield) obſerved, 2 Strange 731. 2 Lord Raymond 1440, that had the words heirs male been uſed inſtead of the words iſſue male the operation of law would have been too ſtrong for the intention of the teſtator. What is the inference when applied to the preſent caſe, where the ſame allowed exceptions to the rule of law do not exiſt? Why, that the ſame rule of law muſt be even more than too ſtrong for the intention of the teſtator, if ſuch a ſtrength were requiſite. But, indeed, when we conſider, that an eſtate to a man for life, and to a man for life only, are in fact (and ſeriouſly ſpeaking) ſynonimous, becauſe by an eſtate for life can be meant nothing more, nor by an eſtate for life only nothing leſs, than an eſtate for life, there ſeems to be no ſubſtantial reaſon for grounding a particular conſtruction on the word only, and therefore I ſhould not heſitate to ſay that F. F. took an eſtate tail under the deviſe in queſtion, did not the novel doctrine, endeavoured to be introduced by the Court of King's Bench, in the caſe of Perrin and Blake, ſeem to interfere with ſuch a concluſion; but however, I can by no means pay ſo much deference to attempted innovations of this nature as either, on the one hand to ground, or on the other to deny an opinion upon its authority, when I find that authority directly oppoſed, not only to a long train of old deciſions, but to three reſpectable and leading caſes ſo recently preceding it as the caſes of Papillon and Voice, (2 P. W. 471.) Coulſon and Coulſon (2 Strange No. 5. 2 Atk. 246.) and Sayer and Maſterman, before the Lords Commiſſioners in 1757, caſes equally ſtrong with that of Perrin and Blake, and all much ſtronger than the preſent: Beſides, I don't ſee why the ſubſequent reverſal by the Court of Exchequer Chamber of the judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in the caſe of Perrin and Blake, is not to be conſidered as having ſuperſeded and done away, or at leaſt ſuſpended the authority of the judgment of the Court of King's Bench in that caſe. However, what attention ſoever may be thought due to the opinion of the Court of King's Bench, in the caſe of Perrin and Blake, it does not (to me at leaſt) appear, that that caſe bears analogy to the preſent. In that caſe there were ſeveral limitations to one for life, remainder to truſtee during his life, remainder to the heirs of his body: in the preſent there is but one limitation, to F. F. and the heirs of her body; ſo that it ſeems to me no inconſiderable queſtion might be raiſed, whether the heirs of the body of F. F. would take at all, unleſs as comprized in the extent of the limitation to F. F. by ſuppoſing her to take an eſtate tail. I therefore cannot ſay I am of any other opinion, than that F. F. took an eſtate tail under the limitation in queſtion, and conſequently that ſhe may bar it, if the cuſtom of the manor allows of ſuch eſtates either by recovery, (by her and her huſband in the manor court) if ſuch is the cuſtom of the manor, if not, then by ſurrender only, by her and her huſband; and if the cuſtom of the manor knows nothing of eſtates tail, then I conceive the limitation anſwers to a fee conditional at common law, and, as there is proles ſuſcitota, may be barred by ſurrender duly made by her and her huſband. The right to fell timber was conſequent upon the eſtate tail, if the cuſtom of the manor gives ſuch power to copyholders of inheritance.

The ſame means by which the eſtate tail (or ſimilitudinary fee, ſimple conditional at the common law) may be barred, will at the ſame time, I conceive, bar the limitations over, and enable F. F. and her huſband to diſpoſe of the premiſes to a purchaſor in fee according to the cuſtom of the manor.

Mr. KENYON's further OPINION.

When I wrote my former opinion, I was fully apprized of the caſes referred to by the learned gentleman, whoſe opinion precedes this, and I was, and ſtill am of the ſame opinion with him and Mr. Philips upon the queſtion propoſed to us. But when a perſon who has his money in his pocket, is to keep it there, or part with it, in conſequence of my opinion, it becomes me to be cautious how I adviſe. The caſe of Perrin and Blake was decided by the judges of the King's-Bench, and though that deciſion did not give general ſatisfaction, and was oppoſed by Mr. Juſtice Yates, and has ſince been reverſed in the Exchequer Chamber, and is now, I believe, depending upon a Writ of Error in the Houſe of Lords, yet it is poſſible that the ſame three judges, or ſome other judges, may apply the reaſoning of that deciſion ciſion to the words of the deviſee in this will, and ſay, that Mrs. L. took an eſtate for life only; and if ſo, ſhe could not make a good title to a purchaſer. I meant only to point out to the purchaſer the poſſibility of ſuch a deciſion: Having done that, I have done my duty, and the purchaſer muſt judge for himſelf. —— A willing purchaſer would take the title, — a ſcrupulous one would keep his money, and not purchaſe a poſſible law-ſuit.

THIS Indenture, made the 22d day of Auguſt, in the nineteenth year, &c. and in the year of our Lord, 1779, Between A. A. Eſquire, eldeſt ſon and heir of Sir B. B. Knight, deceaſed, late one of the Aldermen of the city of L. and B. A. of, &c. Eſquire, ſecond ſon of the ſaid Sir B. B. of the one part, and C. C. of, &c. Eſquire, of the other part. Whereas the ſaid Sir B. A. being in his life time, and at the time of his deceaſe, ſeiſed to him and his heirs in fee-ſimple Of and in the manor of D. with the appurtenances, in the county of D. And of and in the capital meſſuage there, then in his own poſſeſſion; And of and in the perpetual advowſon and right of patronage and preſentation of, in and to the rectory and pariſh church of D. in the ſame county, and of and in divers meſſuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments in D. aforeſaid, and elſewhere in the ſaid county of D. did in and by his laſt will and teſtament in writing by him duly made and executed, bearing date the 6th day of June 1770, (among other things) give, deviſe and bequeath unto his ſon the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, for his natural life, without impeachment of waſte other than as is therein mentioned among other lands, the ſaid manor and capital meſſuage, And all other his lands, tenements and hereditaments in the pariſh of D. or elſewhere in the ſaid county of D. the remainder to the firſt and every other the ſon and ſons of the body of the ſaid B. A. the ſon ſucceſſively in tail male, with divers remainders over, with the laſt remainder in fee to the ſaid Sir B. A.'s right heirs, with ſuch liberty and power for the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, to make a jointure or jointures, or ſettlements out of

The will of the father of the covenantors recited.

Deviſe to B. A. for life, remainder to his ſons ſucceſſively in tail male, &c. Power in B. A. to make a jointure.

of the premiſes, on ſuch wife with whom he ſhould marry, as in the ſame will in that behalf mentioned and contained, As by the ſaid in part recited will, relation being thereunto had, may more at large appear.

That B. A. made a jointure of the premiſes to his preſent wife,

And whereas the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, upon his marriage with E. his now wife, ſole daughter of F. F. of, &c. Eſquire, in purſuance of the power to him given in and by the ſaid recited will, and alſo in purſuance of his marriage articles dated the 17th day of October, 1772, Did limit and appoint the ſaid manor and premiſes to the ſaid E. his wife, for her life for her jointure, as by indenture tripartite bearing date the 18th day of October, 1772, between him the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, of the firſt part, the ſaid F. F. Eſquire, and the ſaid E. wife of the ſaid B. A. by her then name of E. F. of the ſecond part, and G. F. and H. H. Eſquires, therein named, of the third part; and by deed poll under the hand and ſeal of the ſame B. A. bearing date the 20th day of the ſame October, relation being thereunto reſpectively had, may (among other things) more at large appear.

that an act paſſed to veſt the premiſes in truſtees to be ſold for purpoſes in that act,

And whereas in and by a certain act of parliament made and paſſed in the laſt ſeſſion of this preſent parliament (entitled an act, &c.) recited among other things to the effect as is herein before recited, it was (inter alia) enacted, that from and after the 25th day of March, which ſhould be in the year of our Lord 1778, and now laſt paſt, the ſaid manor of D. and the ſaid capital meſſuage and lands in D. aforeſaid, and elſewhere in the county of D. deviſed and ſettled as aforeſaid, with their and every of their appurtenances, ſhall be, and the ſame were thereby actually veſted in and ſettled upon the ſaid F. F. and J. J. of, &c. Eſquire, their heirs and aſſigns, To the Uſe of them, their heirs and aſſigns, freed and diſcharged of and from all uſes, truſts, eſtates, limitations, proviſoes and powers in the ſaid will, indenture, deed poll and articles, or any of them expreſſed or declared, upon truſt, that they the ſaid F. F. and J. J. ſhould ſell and diſpoſe of the ſame, for the uſes and purpoſes in the ſaid in part recited act in that behalf expreſſed and directed, as by the ſaid act, relation being thereunto had, may (among other things) more at large appear.

that the truſtees contracted with the covenantee for the ſale, and conveyed accordingly.

And whereas the ſaid F. F. and J. J. in purſuance of the truſt in them repoſed by the ſaid act of parliament, and with the conſent and approbation of the ſaid A. A. and B. A. party hereunto, have contracted with the ſaid C. C. for the ſale to him of the ſaid manor and advowſon, capital meſſuage, lands, hereditaments and premiſes, deviſed and ſettled as aforeſaid (together with other things) for the ſum or price of fourteen thouſand pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, and by indentures of leaſe and releaſe, and bargain and ſale intended to be inrolled in Chancery, bearing date reſpectively the 19th and 20th days of this inſtant month of Auguſt, the ſaid manor, advowſon, hereditaments and premiſes ſo contracted for as aforeſaid, are and were (in conſideration of the ſum of fourteen thouſand pounds in the ſame indentures of releaſe and bargain and ſale mentioned to be paid to the ſaid F. F. and J. J. by the ſaid C. C. for the purpoſes in the ſaid recited act expreſſed) granted and conveyed, or mentioned to be granted and conveyed unto, and to the uſe of the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns.

That it was intended by the parties that the advowſon ſhoud paſs, and it was included in the contract, and in the conveyance,

And whereas it was the intent and meaning of the ſaid recited act of parliament, and of the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, and of all other perſons on whoſe behalf, and at whoſe requeſt the ſame act was obtained and procured, that the ſaid advowſon of D. with the appurtenances, ſhould have been by the ſaid act veſted and ſettled in and upon the ſaid F. F. and J. J. their heirs and aſſigns, to enable them to ſell, grant and convey away the ſame, together with the ſaid manor, hereditaments, and other the premiſes ſo deviſed and ſettled as aforeſaid; and the ſame advowſon was accordingly included and comprized in the ſaid recited contract for ſale of the aforeſaid premiſes to the ſaid C. C. and likewiſe in purſuance of ſuch contract was, or was mentioned to be conveyed and aſſured (together with the ſaid other purchaſed premiſes) unto, and to the uſe of the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns, in and by the ſaid indentures of leaſe and releaſe, and bargain and ſale as aforeſaid.

but that there is a defect in wording of the act.

But by reaſon of ſome defect and omiſſion in the wording of the ſaid act of parliament, it is apprehended that the ſaid advowſon with the appurtenances was not thereby ſufficiently and effectually veſted and ſettled in and upon the ſaid F. F. and J. J. their heirs and aſſigns, ſo as to enable them legally and effectually to ſell and convey the ſame unto, and to the uſe of the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns as aforeſaid.

That B. A. had agreed with covenantee to procure another act for veſting the advowſon.

And whereas the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, did undertake and agree with the ſaid C. C. upon his ſaid purchaſe and contract, that he the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, his heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, ſhould and would at his and their own proper coſts and charges, ſo ſoon as conveniently might be, procure an act of parliament for the veſting, ſettling and aſſuring the ſaid advowſon of D. with the appurtenances, in and upon him the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns to the uſe of him his heirs and aſſigns for ever, freed and abſolutely diſcharged of and from all the uſes, truſts, eſtates, powers, proviſoes and limitations, in and by the ſaid recited will of the ſaid Sir B. A. or the ſaid articles, indenture and deed poll made upon the marriage of the ſaid B. A. with the ſaid E. his now wife, every or any of them, limited, expreſſed or declared of and concerning the ſame advowſon.

B. A. covenants to procure, &c. another act.

Now this Indenture witneſſeth, That in conſideration of the premiſes, and in purſuance of the ſaid recited agreement, the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, doth hereby for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, covenant, promiſe and agree, to and with the ſaid C. C. his heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, that he the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, his heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall and will at his and their own proper coſts and charges within the ſpace of one year next enſuing the date hereof, obtain and procure, or do his and their utmoſt endeavours to obtain and procure an act of parliament for the veſting, ſettling and aſſuring the ſaid advowſon and patronage of the ſaid rectory or pariſh church of D. with the appurtenances, in and upon him the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns, to the uſe of him, his heirs and aſſigns for ever, freed and abſolutely diſcharged of and from all the uſes, truſts, eſtates, powers, proviſoes and limitations, in and by the ſaid recited will of the ſaid Sir B. A. or the ſaid laſt mentioned articles, indenture and deed poll, every or any of them, limited, expreſſed or declared of and concerning the ſame.

B. A. and A. A. covenant that the covenantee ſhall in the mean time enjoy and preſent.

And the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, and A. A. do, and each of them doth for themſelves, and each of them, their and each of their heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, covenant, promiſe and agree, to and with the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns, by theſe preſents, that in the mean time, and until ſuch act of parliament ſhall be obtained for the purpoſe aforeſaid, he the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns, ſhall and may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the ſaid advowſon of D. with the appurtenances, and from time to time, when and ſo often as the ſaid church ſhall become void, preſent to the ſame, without the let, ſuit, trouble, denial, eviction, diſturbance or interruption of, or by them the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, and A. A. or either of them, their or either of their heirs, executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns, or of or by any other perſon or perſons lawfully claiming or to claim any eſtate, right, title, truſt or intereſt, either at law or in equity, of, in, to or out of the ſame advowſon, from, by or under, or in truſt for them, or either or any of them, or from, by or under the ſaid Sir B. A. deceaſed.

Recital of a compoſition-

And whereas for many years laſt paſt the owners and proprietors of the ſaid capital meſſuage, hereditaments and premiſes in D. aforeſaid, or of ſome part thereof, have conſtantly paid, and do yet yet pay to the parſon or incumbent for the time being of the ſaid pariſh church the yearly ſum of thirty ſhillings, which was and is ſo paid for and in lieu of the rent of one acre of glebe land belonging to the ſaid rectory of D. lying and being in a certain cloſe or field heretofore called Wheat-Cloſe, and now or late called Clover-Field, being part and parcel of the premiſes ſo ſold and conveyed to the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns as aforeſaid, which ſaid acre is ſuppoſed to have been heretofore given or deviſed to, or for the benefit of the then parſon or incumbent of the ſaid rectory and his ſucceſſors; But how to aſcertain or diſtinguiſh the ſaid acre particularly, or in what part of the ſaid field or cloſe the ſame lies cannot at preſent, upon the moſt diligent ſearch and enquiry, be found out, or made to appear. And whereas, the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, did undertake and agree with the ſaid C. C. upon his ſaid purchaſe and contract, that he the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, his heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, ſhould and would at his and their own proper coſts and charges, as ſoon as conveniently might be, by act of parliament, or ſuch other good and effectual ways and means as the counſel of the ſaid C. C. his heirs or aſſigns, ſhould adviſe, cauſe and procure, or do his and their utmoſt endeavour to cauſe and procure, (with the conſent of all parties concerned) an exchange to be made of the ſaid acre of glebe land ſuppoſed to have been given or deviſed as aforeſaid, for and in lieu of one acre and an half of land or ground to be for that purpoſe allotted, ſet apart, and aſcertained by metes and bounds for and out of certain grounds called Y. (parcel of the ſaid purchaſed premiſes, in or near which ſome other glebe land belonging to the ſaid rector now lies) or forth and out of ſuch other part of the ſaid purchaſed premiſes as ſhould for that purpoſe be agreed upon, ſo and in ſuch manner as that the ſaid acre and an half of ground might be veſted and ſettled in and upon the ſaid parſon or incumbent, and his ſucceſſors for ever, in lieu, recompence, and full ſatisfaction and exchange of and for the ſaid acre of glebe land ſuppoſed to have been given or deviſed as aforeſaid, and of and for the ſaid yearly rent of thirty ſhillings, paid or payable for the ſame, and that the ſaid acre of glebe land might be veſted and ſettled in and upon the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns for ever, to his and their uſe, diſcharged of the ſaid rent. Now this Indenture further witneſſeth, That in purſuance of the ſaid laſt recited agreement the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, doth hereby for himſelf, his heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, covenant, promiſe and agree, to and with the ſaid C. C. his heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, that he the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, his heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, ſhall and will at his and their own proper coſts and charges within the ſpace of one year next enſuing the date hereof, by act of parliament, or ſuch other good and effectual ways or means as the counſel of the ſaid C. C. his heirs or aſſigns, ſhall adviſe, cauſe and procure, or do his utmoſt endeavour to cauſe and procure (with the concurrence of all parties concerned) an exchange to be made of the ſaid acre of glebe land ſuppoſed to have been given or deviſed as aforeſaid, for and in lieu of one acre and an half of land or ground to be for that purpoſe allotted, ſet apart and aſcertained by metes and bounds forth and out of the ſaid grounds called Y. or forth and out of ſuch other part of the ſaid purchaſed premiſes as ſhall for that purpoſe be agreed upon, ſo and in ſuch manner as that the ſaid acre and an half of ground may be veſted and ſettled in and upon the ſaid parſon or incumbent and his ſucceſſors for ever, in lieu, recompence and full ſatisfaction and exchange of and for the ſaid acre of glebe land, ſuppoſed to have been given or deviſed as aforeſaid, and of and for the ſaid yearly rent of thirty ſhillings, paid or payable for the ſame, and that the ſaid laſt mentioned acre may be veſted and ſettled in and upon the ſaid C. C. his heirs and aſſigns for ever, to his and their uſe, diſcharged of the ſaid rent. And for the true and full performance of the ſeveral and reſpective covenants and agreements herein before contained on the reſpective parts and behalfs of the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, and A. A. they the ſaid B. A. party hereunto, and A. A. do hereby jointly and ſeverally bind and oblige themſelves, and each of them, their and each of their heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, unto the ſaid *C. THIS Indenture Tripartite, made, &c. between G. P. of, &c. Eſquire, of the firſt part, T. B. one of the ſiſters of Sir T. B. of, &c. of the ſecond part, and Sir J. C. of, &c. and J. D. hath lately for the ſum or price of twenty thouſand pounds of lawful money of Great Britain, bought and purchaſed of and from the ſaid A. A. and B. B. and their truſtees reſpectively, and the ſaid C. C. All thoſe the manors of E. and F. with the appurtenances, in the county of E. and the advowſon of the pariſh church of G. in the ſame county, and all other the meſſuages, lands, tenements and hereditaments which were late the eſtate of H. C. and J. J. both late of G. aforeſaid, Eſquires, deceaſed, or either of them, ſituate and being in the ſeveral pariſhes, towns, hamlets, precincts and territories of G. and K. or either of them, in the ſaid county of E. except a meſſuage or tenement and farm, with the lands and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or therewith uſed in G. aforeſaid, now or late in the tenure of L. L. or his aſſigns, at the yearly rent of two hundred pounds, and one other meſſuage or tenement and farm, with the lands and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or therewith uſed in G. aforeſaid, now or late in the tenure of M. M. or his aſſigns, at the yearly rent of one hundred pounds, And all thoſe ſix ſeveral cottages or tenements in G. aforeſaid, with their appurtenances, now or late in the ſeveral tenure of, &c. At and under ſeveral yearly rents (amounting together to the yearly ſum of thirty pounds) which excepted meſſuages, farms, cottages and premiſes, are contracted to be ſold unto N. N. of G. aforeſaid, in the ſaid county of E. Gentleman. And accordingly by indentures of leaſe and releaſe, and bargain and ſale inrolled, or intended to be inrolled in Chancery, the leaſe bearing date the day next before the day of the date hereof, and the releaſe and bargain and ſale inrolled being both quadrupartite, bearing even date with theſe preſents, and expreſſed to be made between the ſaid A. A. and O. his wife, and P. P. Eſquire, and R. R. Eſquire, (their truſtees) of the firſt part, the ſaid B. B. and S. his wife, and T. T. Eſquire, (which ſaid T. T. together with the ſaid P. P. are truſtees for the ſaid B. B. and S. his wife) of the ſecond part, the ſaid C. C. of the third part, and the ſaid D. D. of the fourth part, and by fine in the ſame indenture of releaſe covenanted to be levied, All the ſaid manors, advowſon, meſſuages, land, tenements, hereditaments and premiſes in G. and K. aforeſaid, or either of them, in the ſaid county of E. (except before excepted) are conveyed and aſſured, or mentioned or intended to be conveyed and aſſured unto, and to the uſe of the ſaid D. D. his heirs and aſſigns for ever. And whereas there are iſſuing and payable out of or for the premiſes herein before mentioned to be bought and purchaſed by the ſaid D. D. and contracted to be ſold unto the ſaid N. N. or ſome part thereof, the ſeveral yearly rents or ſums of money herein after mentioned; that is to ſay, one yearly rent or ſum of five pounds, payable to the Lord of the manor of G. in the ſaid county of E. and one other yearly rent or ſum of ten ſhillings to the clerk for the time being of the pariſh church of G. aforeſaid, and one other yearly ſum of twenty ſhillings for bell ropes for the ſame church, and one other yearly rent or ſum of five pounds to the vicar of the ſaid pariſh of G. for the time being, for and in lieu of certain glebe lands. D.* doth hereby for himſelf, his heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, covenant, promiſe and agree, to and with the ſaid A. A. B. B. and C. C. reſpectively, and their reſpective heirs and aſſigns, that he the ſaid D. D. his heirs and aſſigns, or ſome of them, ſhall and will from time to time, and at all times for ever hereafter, well and truly pay, or cauſe to be paid, all future accruing payments of the ſaid yearly rents or ſums of five pounds ten ſhillings, twenty ſhillings and five pounds to the ſeveral perſons reſpectively to whom, and for ſo long time as the ſame ought to be reſpectively paid as aforeſaid, and thereof and therefrom ſave harmleſs and keep indemnified the ſaid A. A. B. B. C. C. and N. N. their heirs and aſſigns, and his, her and their lands, tenements, goods and chattels. And whereas it is ſuppoſed, that ſome part of the ſaid glebe lands, for which the ſaid ſum of five pounds a year is payable as aforeſaid, may be comprized amongſt the ſaid hereditaments and premiſes purchaſed by the ſaid D. D. and that the other part thereof may be comprized amongſt the ſaid excepted hereditaments and premiſes contracted to be ſold to the ſaid N. N. And whereas the ſaid A. A. B. B. and C. C. have agreed with the ſaid N. N. to convey to him the premiſes, ſo by him purchaſed as aforeſaid, freed from all the ſaid ſeveral yearly rents, and to indemnify him againſt the ſame. And whereas at the time of the ſaid purchaſe made by the ſaid D. D. there was an allowance made to him (in the price of the premiſes by him purchaſed) for the ſaid ſum of five pounds a year, payable for the glebe lands, after the rate of thirty years purchaſe or thereabouts; And it was thereupon, and it is now hereby alſo agreed by and between the ſaid parties to theſe preſents, that in caſe any eviction or recovery ſhould be had or made by the ſaid vicar of G. or any other perſon from the ſaid *D. Recital concerning the glebe land, and that the vendors had agreed with the fifth perſon to convey his part diſcharged, and had made an allowance for that purpoſe to the preſent purchaſer, and the parties had agreed upon a mutual recompence in caſe of any eviction.

ſaid A. A. B. B. and C. C. their heirs, executors or adminiſtrators reſpectively, each of them, for one third part only, are to make recompence to the ſaid D. D. his heirs and aſſigns, as well for ſuch of the ſaid glebe lands ſo to be evicted or recovered from him or them as ſhall exceed or be more in yearly value than the ſaid ſum of five pounds a year (or than ſuch part thereof as ſhall or may thereupon ſo ceaſe) after the rate of thirty years purchaſe for the yearly value of ſuch evicted glebe lands ſo exceeding, or being more than the ſaid five pounds a year, (or than ſuch part thereof as ſhall or may ſo ceaſe) as alſo for all coſts and expences which he or they ſhall bear, pay, ſuſtain or expend in the defence and maintenance of the title to the aforeſaid glebe lands, or any part thereof, or in oppoſing ſuch eviction or recovery. And that if the glebe lands ſo to be recovered or evicted from the ſaid D. D. his heirs or aſſigns, ſhall be leſs in the yearly value thereof than the ſaid five pounds a year, (or than ſuch part thereof as ſhall or may ſo ceaſe) in caſe the ſame five pounds a year, or any part thereof do or may thereupon ceaſe, that then and in ſuch the ſaid D. D. his heirs or aſſigns, ſhall in the yearly value thereof fall ſhort of the ſaid five pounds a year; and that if no eviction or recovery of any glebe lands ſhall be had or made from the ſaid D. D. his heirs or aſſigns, but that any glebe lands ſhall be evicted or recovered from the ſaid A. A. B. B. and C. C. their heirs or aſſigns, or from the ſaid N. N. his heirs or aſſigns, and that thereupon the ſaid ſum of five pounds a year, or any part thereof ſhall or may thereupon ceaſe, and the ſaid D. L. Knight, unto the said Viscountess for and during the term of her natural life, for her jointure, as in and by the said in part, &c. And whereas the said marriage took effect, and the said J. Lord Viscount L. since departed this life, whereby the Lady Viscountess became lawfully intitled to the said rent charge or annuity of three hundred and twenty pounds per annum for her life, for her jointure, by virtue

As to F.'s claiming title and bringing ejectments, &c. As to a ſpecial verdict thereon now undetermined.

whereas the ſaid G. F. claiming to be intitled to the ſaid manors and premiſes in the ſaid recited deeds and will mentioned, by virtue of the laſt will and teſtament of G. late Lord Viſcount L. deceaſed, (father of the ſaid J. Lord Viſcount L.) did as of Michaelmas term, which was in the year of our Lord 1776, bring his ejectments in his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, by A. M. Eſquire, his feigned leſſee againſt the ſaid M. Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager of L. and the ſeveral tenants in poſſeſſion of and for recovery of all the ſaid manors and premiſes, and the ſaid M. Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager of L. having appeared and made defence to the ſaid ejectments, the ſame came to be tried in the ſaid Court of Exchequer before the Barons of the ſame court in Michaelmas term, which was in the year ——— whereupon a ſpecial verdict was found by the jury that tried the ſaid ejectments, which ſpecial verdict is ſtill depending and undetermined in the ſaid court: And whereas

H.* defendants, It was (inter alia) ordered, that the ſaid two thouſand pounds due on the ſaid mortgaged manor and premiſes ſhould be forthwith paid off with part of the ſaid B. A.'s portion therein mentioned, and that the ſaid A. A. ſenior, and Sir G. G. and H. H. ſhould aſſign the ſame two thouſand pounds, ſo as the ſaid C. A. his executors and adminiſtrators, might after the death of the ſaid M. A. diſpoſe thereof as he ſhould think fit, for his own uſe and benefit; And that the ſaid mortgage for the ſame ſhould be aſſigned to attend the uſes and eſtate in and by the ſaid articles agreed to be granted and limited of the ſaid mortgaged manor and premiſes. And whereas it is ſuppoſed and alledged, that the ſaid C. A. ſoon after the ſaid decree, actually received and converted to his own uſe the ſaid whole ſum of two thouſand pounds, out of part of the ſaid B. A.'s portion, but the ſaid mortgaged manor and premiſes, and the then reſidue of the ſaid term of five hundred years therein were not thereupon, nor at any time afterwards, aſſigned according to the direction of the ſaid decree, to attend the inheritance of the ſame premiſes, and the uſes and eſtates thereof, by the ſaid articles agreed to be granted or limited, and which by the ſaid laſt mentioned indentures of leaſe and releaſe were thereof granted or limited accordingly. And whereas upon the moſt diligent ſearch for the ſaid recited indenture of mortgage the ſame cannot at preſent be found, nor can any diſcovery be made what is become thereof; and therefore previous to the ſaid recited conveyance of the ſaid manor, meſſuages, lands, hereditaments and premiſes, by and from the ſaid *A. and deeds of leaſe and releaſe purſuant to the articles, and a decree in Chancery, to aſſign the mortgage-money ſubject to the diſpoſal of the vendor's grand-father after the death of his then wife, and the term to attend the inheritance, and that it is ſuppoſed the grandfather received the whole money, but the term was not aſſigned to attend the inheritance, nor can be found, and that the vendor had agreed to indemnify the purchaſer againſt it.

The covenant to indemnify the purchaſer.
